"Minute Men" To Canvass Township In Defense Drive

Chairman Stiles Addresses Antioch Organization Here Last Night

Final plans for the War Bond campaign in Antioch township were effected last night at a meeting held at the Antioch Grade school where James F. Stiles, Jr., of Lake Bluff, who is chairman of the defense drive in Lake county was the principal speaker.

Otto S. Klass, township chairman, who had met Sunday with other members of the local defense committee and mapped out the township into zones, announced the "Minute Men" chairmen for the 15 local districts. The zone chairmen will select their own assistants for the house to house canvass that it to be made in connection with the drive which will get under way next Monday, May 11.

Assisting Chairman Klass in zoning the township were Prin. Ralph E. Clabaugh, George Wagner, and William E. Brook, of the defense committee.

"Minute Men" chairman for the various zones are: Mrs. B. R. Burke, Mrs. Eleanor Micheli, Mrs. Lawrence Yopp, O. L. Raether, William Bennett, Mrs. John Doyle, Mrs. Henry Pape, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Selter, Mrs. Robert Runyard, Mrs. George Randall, Walter Hills, Mrs. Lester Henth, A. H. Pierstorff, Mrs. Nason E. Sibley, Mrs. Ed F. Vos, Joe Rhymer and George White.

May Quota Is $540,400

"The residents of Lake County must buy $540,400 worth of Bonds and Stamps in May; $736,000 during June, and $931,300 every month from July on if America is going to win this war."

"These are not mere estimates, not guesses, not 'would-it-be-nice-to-o' figures, but the absolute minimum required for Victory."

"The nation's quota is $1,000,000,000 a month. We've got to do our part." This announcement was made last night by Chairman James F. Stiles, Jr. of the War Savings committee of Lake county, after being notified by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau that the establishment of quotas for the nation, "placed an added responsibility on every American citizen."

Will Beat Quota, Stiles Says

"We have been telling Treasury officials, 'Let us know how much you want us to do, and the citizens of our districts will do it.' Set a figure, and we will beat it," Mr. Stiles said.

"We now know what is expected of us as patriotic citizens in the war effort. I expect the citizens of Lake county to meet this challenge to their loyalty to the men on our fighting fronts. Not only will we equal our quota, we will go over the top every month, throughout the duration."

County quotas throughout the United States will be based on the average sales since inauguration of the Bond Campaign May 1, 1942, Chairman Stiles explained.

Billion a Month in Nation

"The total sales throughout the country have averaged $440,000,000 per month. For the present, this will be regarded as 44 per cent of quota. The national goal is $1,000,000,000 per month," Mr. Stiles said—"we must also regard our past record as only 44 per cent adequate. Our quota will gradually be stepped up during May and June. From July on, we will be called upon to meet a quota double the amount of our previous sales. We can do it. We will."

Chairman Klass complimented the local "minute men" for their enthusiastic response to their country's call and stated that he had full confidence in their ability to make the local campaign a success.

Hold Motor Clinic Here Next Week

The R. & J. Chevrolet Sales has announced that a motor clinic will be held here the first three days of next week, May 11, 12 and 13. This is the third annual event of the kind to be sponsored by the local automobile dealers.

"The purpose of the clinic," said Frank Lux, service manager, "is to make certain that your car is giving you the performance, economy, and riding qualities that were built into it at the factory."

Particular attention will be given to correct carburetor adjustment and ignition timing.

The service is free to all car owners regardless of the make of car they own, Lux said, although General Motors Corp. and Socony-Vacuum Oil co., Inc., sponsor the clinics and provide special equipment for making the various tests.

ANNUAL POPPY SALE SET FOR MAY 23

The annual poppy sale conducted each year in May under the supervision of the Legion is one of the ways of gathering money for the disabled veterans in hospitals throughout the United States. This year in Antioch poppy sales will be held on Saturday, May 23rd by members of the Legion Auxiliary, who have carried on this program for a number of years in cooperation with Antioch Legion post.

In connection with the recent poppy poster contest under the supervision of the 10th district Auxiliary, the following pupils were given honors: Patsy Mulligan and Muriel Friedle of Lotus school; Doris Jean Hieber and Darlene Christensen of the Antioch grade school and posters of these winners will go to the 10th district judging for possible further honors.

Many Types of Building Still Permitted by WPB

Save War Materials But Don't Neglect Homes, Is Intent of Order

You can still build a garage or barn, add a new room or porch, modernize your attic or basement, put on a new roof, repaint or repair your home or outbuildings—all without any priorities or permits, said Ed F. Vos, of the Antioch Lumber & Coal company, when questioned this morning on just what the recent WPB New Construction Conservation order means to the property owners of our community.

"The fundamental purpose of the order," said Vos, "is to conserve scarce materials for essential war uses, but the provisions are generous enough to obviously prevent anyone's neglecting the repair and maintenance of home, barn, store or factory."

A number of the building projects which may be completed entirely without permit were listed by Vos:

1. New residential construction in town or on the farm costing up to $500.
2. Any Farm Building (dwellings excepted) costing up to $1,000.
3. Any commercial, institutional, industrial, recreational, utilities, highway, roadway, or sub-surface construction costing up to $5000.
4. Any reconstruction or restoration of residential construction damaged or destroyed after Dec. 31, 1941 by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, act of God, or the Public Enemy.
5. Homeowners who wish to repair their front porch, repaint all their buildings, insulate to save fuel, or apply new roofs can undertake such maintenance and repair work without permit of any kind and in any amount.

The order actually encourages with priorities the private construction of defense houses and the alteration of houses in defense areas.

The so-called "freezing" of larger private construction erroneously reported by many news agencies is giving way to more cheerful and accurate facts. As usual the people of this town must depend on their newspaper to give them the "low-down" on which they can depend and act.

"The order was intended to direct as much material as possible to war use," Vos said, "but it also makes generous and necessary allowances for needed civilian construction."

Board Awards Water Tower Paint Contract

Approves VanPatten as Fire Chief; Fills Committee Vacancies

The Antioch water tower is to have a new painting. That was decreed by the board Tuesday night at the first meeting of the new year. The contract was awarded to James Hanlon & Sons, steeplejack contractors, of Niles Center, Ill., and the price is to be $388.00, which includes all labor, materials and workmen's insurance.

The Hanlon firm painted the tower in 1939 and did a satisfactory job, according to the trustees.

Satisfactory operation of a Rusta Restor, a device installed three years ago for the protection of the inner surface of the tank below the water line was reported at the meeting. The original cost was $250, and the cost of identical equipment is now reported to be $450. The device eliminated the use of paint below the water, whereas interior painting would necessitate draining of the town's water supply during the work. The Rusta Restor has more than saved its cost, board members say.

Other business transacted at the meeting included approval of the appointment of L. R. Van Patten as chief of the Antioch Fire department, and the appointment of trustees to fill vacancies on various committees formerly held by Capt. L. D. Powles, who was granted a leave of absence last year when he entered military service. He is stationed at Wright Field, Dayton, O. In his stead Trustee Vos will serve on the licensing committee; Trustee Stearns on the finance and auditing committee; and Trustee Renner on the public buildings committee. The membership of the various committees will remain the same during the trustees' terms of office. The committees are as follows:

Licensing and licensing—Vos, Scott, Rosenfeldt.

Streets and lighting—Stearns, Renner, Vos.

Sewer and water—Stearns, Scott, Renner.

Finance and auditing—Stearns, Vos, Rosenfeldt.

Arthur C. Lueder, state auditor of public accounts, has announced that old age assistance payments in the state for the month of April again increased to a new high figure of 150,266 amounting to $3,897,509.00.

This represents an increase of $61,508.00 over March when 149,975 Illinoisans, 65 years of age or over, received $3,836,001.00.

Lueder, whose office prepares and distributes the monthly warrants said that 97,731 downstate recipients received $2,337,970.00 and that 52,535 Cook County residents received $1,559,539.00. The Federal Government contributes one-half of this amount and the remainder comes from the State Treasury.

In Lake county 890 beneficiaries received $22,757.00.

Aid to dependent children warrants issued for the month of April also increased to the new high figure of 22,165 amounting to $721,077 and benefited 50,171 needy children, according to Lueder's report. For Lake county 90 warrants were issued for $3,383.00 which benefited the county's 239 dependent children.

Mr. Fortin plans to operate a home bakery in connection with his restaurant. Bakery equipment has been purchased and delivery is expected within the next few days.

Mrs. Alice Regan expects to leave this week for St. Louis, Mo., for a few weeks visit with her son, William Regan, of the U. Report American Coach Co. May Start Local Service Soon Prospects of inaugurating coach service between Antioch and Waukegan and other north shore cities at an early date seemed brighter this week with the announcement that at least one of the coaches recently built for the American Coach company will be released by the war priorities board.

Delivery of the two new motor coaches was "frozen" by the rationing board immediately upon their completion, and it was not until convincing evidence was produced showing the need of better local transportation in the interest of defense that the board agreed to release one of the buses, according to Maurice J. Nathanson, attorney for Pres. A. H. Gerner of the coach company.

Attorney Nathanson represented the American Coach company recently at the hearing before the Illinois State Commerce commission on a petition for a franchise to operate between the lake region and Chicago. It is understood that the commission was impressed and members intimated that the grant would be forthcoming, however even that may be delayed through the fact that the examiner who acted at that time is no longer connected with the commerce commission. It is believed, however, that the franchise will be granted at an early date.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

May 1, 1942

TO THE PEOPLE OF ILLINOIS:

This week a new campaign for the sale of War Bonds and Savings Stamps is under way throughout the Nation. It is the War Bond Quota Campaign.

It is urgently necessary that you double the rate at which you are now buying War Bonds and Savings Stamps. This will mean the sale direct to individual Americans of War Bonds and Stamps to the amount of not less than one billion dollars every month.

One billion dollars a month is the National quota. It is equal to one-tenth the combined income of all Americans.

This money is needed to buy the tools of war for your fighting forces. It will not pay for all of them. There are not enough goods to go around—the things we buy with money. If we go on spending at the 1941 scale, we'll be robbing the fighting men to add to our own comfort or pleasure. We'll be driving up the cost of living for all of us. We'll be imposing dire hardships on our neighbors.

It is desperately needed for another reason. We can't fight a war and at the same time live and spend as usual. There are not enough goods to go around—the things we buy with money. If we go on spending at the 1941 scale, we'll be robbing the fighting men to add to our own comfort or pleasure. We'll be driving up the cost of living for all of us. We'll be imposing dire hardships on our neighbors.

What is asked of you is ten per cent of your earnings—a tithe for Liberty. It is not a tax; it is not even a contribution; it is a loan at interest, for your use and protection later.

Your Government asks you to cut down your expenditures, TO SAVE—your boys on the firing line and in the training camps, through your Government, ask you to save so that they may have what they need to win YOUR WAR for you—America asks you to save; to SAVE TO WIN THE WAR; to buy War Bonds and Savings Stamps up to not less than ten per cent of your income.

Is Liberty worth it? Is Democracy worth it? Is America worth it? I think I know your answer.

Sincerely,
Samuel H. Morgenthau

The above letter was sent to this newspaper by Secretary Morgenthau in Washington. We publish it in the interest of the War Bond Quota Campaign and earnestly recommend that all our readers do their share in the tremendous job ahead of financing the War effort.

"Boys in Service" Fund Grows; Collect $60.57 from Boxes

The committee on collections from the Antioch Post of the American Legion in interest of the funds for "Our Boys in Service," checked money boxes on Wednesday afternoon in the business section and the amount totaled $60.57. The results were gratifying and many of the business people encouraged the idea of leaving the boxes up during the summer months as the cause was such a worthy one.

2,305 Register Here for War Rationing Books

Quotas Granted to All but 211; Complete Registry Tonight

Registrations at the Antioch Grade school for sugar rationing books during the first three days of the registration period totaled 2,305. Prin. R. E. Clabaugh, who is in charge of the registrations, reported today. Included in the local registrations were residents of Antioch and five out-lying grade school districts—Hickory, Bean Hill, Emmons, Channel Lake and Grass Lake.

Rationing quotas were issued to 2,084. Prin. Clabaugh reported, as 221 persons registering had supplies of sugar exceeding the six-pound limit per person. Those who did not receive their coupon books will get them later when their present supply is reduced to the quota limit. Instructions will be issued by the rationing board.

A corps of ushers and registrars working at 18 desks were kept busy each day from 4 to 9 p.m. The registrations were carried out under an alphabetical arrangement. Those whose surnames began with the letters A to E registering on Monday; F to K on Tuesday; and L to R yesterday; today will include S to Z names. There were some variations from the alphabetical system, registrars said.

Estimates computed on the first three days' total indicate that there will be over 3,000 registrants in the local area.

Those who are serving as registrars in shifts are as follows:

Mrs. Fern Lux, Miss Jeanne Casey, Mrs. Rutha Smith, Miss Marion Johnson, Miss Ayleen Wilson, Miss Dorothy Kurzenkabe, Mrs. Doris Bray, Mrs. Margaret Kufalk, Mrs. Myrtle Barnstable, Mrs. George Garland, Mrs. Kaufman, Virgil Newlin, Mrs. Irving Elms, Mrs. W. C. Petty, Mrs. Melvin Stillson, Miss Murphy, Miss Marjorie Geier, Miss Lois Guenette, Mrs. E. Edwards, Mrs. Arthur Trierger, Mrs. H. H. Perry, Mrs. Vera Rentner, Miss Charlene Jorgensen, Mrs. F. Spangstad, Mrs. Virgil Felter, Mrs. Henry Pape, Mrs. A. G. Simon, Mrs. Earl Pitman, Mrs. Patrovsky, Mrs. J. Fields, Mrs. Wolfhanger, Mrs. Robert Wilton, Mrs. Clete Vos.

Lists County's Fire Equipment

Secy. C. E. Shultis Makes Survey of Available Equipment

Lake county's twenty fire departments could furnish, in case of a major emergency in any part of the county, 17 pumps capable of delivering almost 10,000 gallons of water a minute, over 3 1/2 miles of hose, and 99 men; in addition to first aid equipment listed at 14 inhalators, 5 extra oxygen tanks, 23 complete first aid kits, two lighting units and 105 men trained in first aid.

That is the result of the county survey just completed by Clarence B. Shultis, secretary of the Lake County Firemen's association.

All of the equipment listed in the secretary's report is extra equipment owned by each department which could be used in any part of the county and still not leave the home areas unprotected.

Seventeen of the departments can furnish pumps and men, and all 20 departments have available hose, while the first aid report lists two complete motorized units—Antioch and Libertyville—both carrying extra tanks for inhalators and home-lighting plants. Antioch can furnish 15 men trained in first aid, and Libertyville 10. Fox Lake has 18 trained men.

The Abbott Laboratories can furnish on call a large supply of oxygen with adapters for tanks and the medical supplies needed.

The cataloging of men and equipment was of March 1, 1942, and it may be that other equipment has been added since that date, the secretary said. More trained men also are being added to first-aid personnel each month.

Shultis' report has been turned over to the Civilian Defense Council, and it is regarded as a valuable source of ready information that can be used in case of any war-time or other emergency.

Mrs. Mollie Somerville returned home Saturday from Joliet, where she had spent the past two weeks with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Somerville.

"What I Have Searched for All My Life"

Henry G. Lee of South Pasadena, Calif., a graduate of Pomona College, class of '37, was a Lieutenant in Wainwright's army in Bataan. He wrote the following letter to his family before the surrender and it was published in the Pomona (Calif.) Progress Bulletin. It is republished here as evidence of the high type of soldier America has produced.

"In the Field"
Feb. 12, 1942

Dear Mother, Dad and Frances:

This letter may never be delivered. It will go to Corregidor and there wait for transportation. Perhaps I'll be able to cable you before it arrives. Quien sabe? (Expletive, "Who knows?")

About the war I can say nothing. You back home know more about it than we do. All we see is our little theatre of operations. . . .

Also, I am proud to be a part of the fight that is being made here; and would not, even if it were possible, leave here until it is over and we have won, as we inevitably will. By "we" I mean my country in general. Bataan may fall, but the eventual outcome of the war is foreordained.

I have seen some horrible things happen, and have had my share of narrow escapes, but I have also seen some very wonderful acts of courage, self-sacrifice and loyalty. At last I have found what I have searched for all my life—a cause and a job in which I can lose myself completely and to which I can give every ounce of my strength and my mind. And I have mentally and spiritually conquered my fear of death. Pure animal terror—a protective emotion—cannot be entirely subdued by the mentality but it can, and has been controlled.

My prayer each night is that God will send you, who are suffering so much more than I am, His strength and peace. During the first few days of war I also prayed for personal protection from physical harm but now that I may be given strength to bear whatever I must bear, and do whatever I must do so that those men under me will have every reasonable chance.

Life and my family have been very good to me—and have given me everything I have ever really wanted, and should anything happen to me here it will not be like closing a book in the middle as it would have been had I been killed in the first few days of the war. For in the last two months I have done a lifetime of living, and have been a part of one of the most unselfish, co-operative efforts that has ever been made by any group of individuals.

Mistakes may have been made—but that has nothing to do with the manner in which my comrades on Bataan, both Filipinos and Americans, have reacted to their trial by fire. If the same selfless spirit were devoted to world betterment in time of peace, what a good world we would have!

The purpose of this letter is to send you my love and my thanks for just being my family. It is written with no so-called premonitions. Really, all in all, my chances are pretty good. Much better than most of the line officers of my grade and age. For, as I told you many times in my letters before the war, my particular job—and it hasn't been changed—is about as safe as any soldier could have in war time.

"Keep 'em flying"—WEST!

Your loving son and brother,

HENRY.

P. S.: Dad was right. He always said that actually being in a war is not as bad as reading or hearing about one. "A man can do what he must do" is another apt phrase of his which I've never forgotten.

B. F. Van Patten has purchased an interest in the Morley saloon on Main street and the business will hereafter be conducted under the firm name of Morley & Van Patten.

The question has been repeatedly asked us as to whether or not the proceedings of the Village Board could be published from time to time. We see no reason why a report of this kind could not be published. In fact there is none. The trustees are the servants of the public and their action on all affairs pertaining to the public and by this of course is meant particularly the residents of the village, should be made known.

James Kaye commenced work on the foundation of R. D. Emmons' new house the past week. G. P. Montgomery has charge of the carpenter work.

A number of cars designed especially for World's Fair traffic have passed over the Central lately.

Several residences will be erected in the Johannott addition on the east side of the town this season.

H. Ries is hauling lumber for his new house in the Johannott addition.

A. P. Ames was in the World's Fair city Wednesday.

Manager Wilton placed an elegant new piano in his opera house this week and this with the many other noticeable improvements he has made makes the equipment of the house about as complete as could be desired.

The Village board has decided to buy or rent some building suitable for the holding of their meetings and for the purpose of Village jail. We need a town hall and the village authorities should take all steps necessary to secure a building suitable for the purpose.

About the appliances we advertise nowadays

The appliances we are now advertising are limited to those we have on hand, or those that are made available without interference with war production.

They all have been selected because their normal operation in the home comes at a time of day when our electrical facilities are more than adequate to meet present power requirements for both war production and civilian use. Furthermore, we believe that their use in most cases will conserve energy and tend to release home labor for helpful wartime activities.

Now more than ever—

Your home needs the good cheer and spring freshness of MODERN LAMPS

Establishment of Price Control Plan Emphasizes Need for All-Out Effort; War Office Spokesmen Propose Plan To Eliminate Class '3' Draft Group

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

CEILINGS: Cover Nation

The setting of price ceilings on practically every conceivable commodity in the country had been expected by the business world, hence it was received with little shock.

The impact on the public had been terrific, however, and it is certain that business men were surprised at the drastic rules to be adopted by Leon Henderson to put "teeth" into the price control plan.

Henderson had made it "life or death" for business by a very simple procedure. He proposed licensing all retailers and wholesalers, and if found violating a single one of the price ceilings, they would face an instant loss of their license to do business.

This was a form of control which was not familiar to anyone living in this country, in fact without parallel in history, and it fell on the business ear with a sickening thud, and the merchant could now say "I know what it is to be at war."

German and Italian commentators picked this up gleefully, and called it a terrific blow "to the American way of life" as indeed it was, and the President promptly and frankly had admitted it.

The American answer was, however, that the American way of life was but being placed in abeyance for the time being, pending the winning of the war, when it would be back again in full flower once more.

The sugar commercial users had turned out in force to register, and the nation was on the threshold of the rationing of this commodity.

Restaurants were planning to meet the shortage by changing their cookery and bills of fare; ice cream makers were going to have to shorten their output, the candy makers were in for a tough time.

But in general the spirit was excellent, and while there was some talk of a growing "black market" in tires, and the nation was going to have to cope with that sort of thing, Henderson's penalties were expected to be sufficient to meet the need, and the future was being faced with a good heart by the rank and file of the country, whether consumer or producer, whether buyer or seller.

WAGES: Hold Still

With the President giving the green light to the program to set ceilings on prices and incomes, setting $25,000 a year net as the latter, the question of ceilings on wages came in for much comment but no action.

The President had taken a strong public stand for the 40-hour week continuance, revealed that labor in war industry was constantly working at least 48 hours, and pointing out that as price ceilings were not retroactive, but were fixed at March's highest levels, he did not favor a program which would reduce the weekly paycheck.

While there had been much talk about the work-week, and some proposed legislation, nobody had so far had the temerity to come forward with a program to cut everybody's wages in war industry.

Labor itself had voluntarily foregone the double time for Sundays and holidays, while holding out for the time and a half for the sixth day of work, and the same for a seventh if necessary.

It was the attitude of the White House that with rents held to a ceiling, and with the cost of living stabilized through commodity price ceilings, there could be no excuse for increases in wages.

The average weekly wage in industrial plants now stood at $35 a week, a revolutionary increase, and it was seen that if the White House and the administration stood strongly for no wage increases, then labor trouble in industries should automatically vanish. Wages would automatically hold still, it was held by authorities.

ARMY: Dependency

An effort to get into uniform larger numbers of men with dependents, on the ground that men with somebody at home to fight for ought to make as good if not better fighters than any, was being made by the army with the suggestion that allowances ought to be made for men with dependents who are with the armed forces.

This was a revolutionary idea, but its proponents declared it was just as sound as the reverse procedure, which gave a man exemptions on his income tax for dependents.

Selective service leaders pointed out that Class 3 was the largest class in the entire draft, and this was the class they should eliminate.

Allowances for dependents, they said, would accomplish this.

The spokesmen for the war department had been Maj. William S. Richards, and Maj. Francis V. Keesling of the selective service system.

Keesling had said: "Sixty-five per cent of all registrants are in Class 3. In our planning for the future, we have contemplated the advisability of further distinguishing between men in this class."

"If congress should pass allowance and allotment provisions for these dependents, then Class 3 could be abolished altogether."

"Under such circumstances single and married men could be inducted in accordance with their numbers only."

TROOPS: Down Under

Heavy reinforcements of American troops in Australia had been acknowledged by Prime Minister Curtin, and there had been a redoubling of the air attacks by American and Aussie planes on Jap bases.

Most observers believed that the Japanese had abandoned any hope of ever setting foot on Australian soil, but the communiques from Melbourne and Canberra still stressed Japanese concentrations of air power to the north, and a studied effort was being made, apparently, to dispel any idea that the menace had been removed.

Whether this was just a program of "playing safe," or to give more point to the strides the American-Australian forces were making with their offensive, was hard to say.

The British seemed to feel that the Japs were making their biggest play on the Burmese front, but admittedly, if the Burmese campaign were to be won, then the danger of Australia being next would be greater.

But the dispatches seemed to show that whatever advantage of numbers or equipment there might be on the Australian front probably rested with the Allies—not with the Japanese.

The constant raids on Lae, Salamaua and New Britain seemed to be wreaking increased damage, and the supply lines from the United States to Australia still failed to report any sinkings of American vessels, hence had to be presumed to be open and successfully moving supplies and men.

The Australian front, on the whole, had so far been a comforting and successful section of the battle for our side.

Tojo had warned his people that in spite of successes so far, they must be prepared for a long war, that the victory had not yet been won, and that many sacrifices must yet be made.

This was addressed to a people which had for years been watching with disquiet the failure of their armies to quell or overcome the Chinese, and now, with the whole civilized world on their trail, to see still more shiploads of wounded coming home, and to get constant additional reports of heavy air and land losses.

FACTORY:

America Winning Battle of Production

Men of industry told the nation that as far as they were concerned, regardless of what might be the news from the fighting or training fronts, the battle of production was being won.

The top industries in the United States, with representatives meeting in Chicago, had reported:

Airplanes—on schedule.
Ships—Ahead of schedule.
Coal—Adequate.

Even on petroleum the reports were that production was more than adequate, and that the distribution problems were being solved. Power and construction projects were reported working on schedule. The machine tools were said to be adequate in supply.

As to our steel output, it was called 50 per cent greater than the capacity of Germany, Japan, Italy and all the nations controlled by the Axis put together.

AXIS:

Unrest Evident

Turning to the three Axis governments, each of them was showing serious signs of unrest.

The Japanese had been jittery since the bombings of their cities by American planes, and the certainty that it would happen again and again in the future.

The Germans had found Hitler suddenly calling the Reichstag in session, not for democratic purposes, but simply to vote him, in typical rubber-stamp fashion, practical life and death power over everyone, and really placing the Gestapo in such a position in the Reich as even it had never enjoyed before.

Mussolini publicly was admitting serious disorders in Italy. He cited lack of discipline being reported from many prefectures, and that widespread fraud and "cheating" was rearing its ugly head.

London was advising caution in accepting reports that there had been an open break between Mussolini and King Victor Emmanuel.

But Mussolini, according to neutral press centers and to Italian broadcasts picked up had spoken bitterly of the Italian food shortage, and had called it Italy's most serious problem.

It was from Switzerland that the report had come that King Victor Emmanuel had decided to ask both

KING VICTOR EMMANUEL Break with Mussolini?

Mussolini and Ciano to resign, and to take over the reins of government himself.

Other neutral circles, however, had viewed the Mussolini talk as a simple prelude to a purge of high Fascist officials.

The Hitler talk had been seen in the same way, and neutral reports had been that one of the first acts under Hitler's new powers had been the cashiering of the general charged with the Leningrad area of the Russian front where things had been going very badly with the spring offensive of Germany.

In fact Russia had claimed that on this front German-Finnish losses had averaged 500 deaths a day.

RUSSIA: And RAF

The Royal Air force and Russia had begun to work like a team on Germany, and the evidence was piling up that Hitler was faced with a spring offensive that might at any moment kick back in his face.

Moscow told of her troops making an "important advance" of 45 miles in four days on the Leningrad front, with terrific Nazi resistance overcome in crossing a vital river.

At the same time the Berlin and Vichy radios were admitting that big battles were in progress in the Kurk and Orel sectors, and that a large-scale Russian attack, well supplied with tanks and armored cars, had succeeded in breaking through the German lines northeast of Orel.

This was another sector than the one the Russians spoke of, so it seemed that the Russian successes probably had not been purely local.

The attack of the Royal Air force on Baltic ports had wreaked terrific damage, and these points, so far removed from England that Germany had regarded them as rather safe, probably were not well defended.

But the Halifax and Sterling bombers, plus our own four-motored planes, had been able to eat up this distance, and to drop 1,000,000 pounds of bombs on Rostock alone.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 3.

The Golden Text was, "The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth; the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands" (Psalm 9:16).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God; for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man; But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed" (James 1:13, 14).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christian Science commands man to master the propensities—to hold hatred in abeyance with kindness, to conquer lust with chastity, revenge with charity, and to overcome deceit with honesty. The good man finally can overcome his fear of sin. Immortal man demonstrates the government of God, good in which is no power to sin" (p. 405).

METHODIST CHURCH

Antioch, Illinois

Fourteen lay leaders from Chicago and North Shore churches, under the leadership of Henry V. Loeppert, lay leader for Chicago Northern District, were guests of the church at the morning service last Sunday. Brief addresses were made by five of the group on subjects relating to men and their relation to the church and the community. All of these men are busy business men. They also are active leaders in their respective churches. Of one thing they are thoroughly convinced, and that is the church has something to offer that is vital to their lives that cannot be found in any other source. Mr. Loeppert and his group has the heartfelt thanks of all present for their visit.

A very beautiful floral offering was presented last Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Radtke and family in memory of Harry Radtke who passed away a year ago last Saturday, May 2, 1941. The church is glad to have had a part in this very fitting tribute. There are many others in the community who might present similar memorials thereby giving expression to their love and appreciation of those who have gone on before, and incidentally add beauty and inspiration to the worship service. The pastor will be pleased to cooperate at any time.

Next Sunday is Mother's Day. Appropriate services are being arranged. In appreciation of the living mothers of the land, and in memory of those who have passed away, every one should find time to spend an hour in the House of God that morning. We suggest that you bring your Mother's Day flowers to the service that all may partake of their fragrance and beauty. You will enjoy them more later on for having shared them with others. Don't forget the place and time: Methodist Church, Antioch, 11:00 o'clock, next Sunday morning. Bring your family and friends.

Baha'is Near End of First Century of Their Faith

Foreign Delegates Attend Annual Convention in Wilmette

Mrs. A. F. Matthisen of Bristol, Wis., who attended the 34th annual Convention of the Baha'is of the United States and Canada held in Wilmette, Ill., this past week, reports that the seating capacity was taxed to its utmost this year by the large attendance.

This convention, Mrs. Matthisen reports, was one of the most significant in the history of the Faith in America. Anticipating the close of the first century of their Faith in 1944, Baha'is are bent upon the completion of a strenuous Seven Year Plan inaugurated in 1937. This program calls for the completion of the exterior ornamentation of their House of Worship in Wilmette and the establishing of groups in each state and province of the United States and Canada and each Latin American Republic. The schedule for the work on the House of Worship in Wilmette is two years ahead of 1944 and completion of the exterior ornamentation is anticipated this year. This includes the laying of 2½ miles of circular steps at the base of the distinctive final story.

Advocate Oneness of Humanity
The increasing scope of this universal cataclysm, as it was foretold by the Founder of the Faith in His historic letters to the kings and rulers of the earth is motivating the Baha'is to speed their efforts of sharing the knowledge of His basic laws for the new age. These are the Oneness of the human race; religions, races, creeds, classes and culture.

In line with their program for closer spiritual understanding among peoples of diverse cultures, religions and classes, Baha'is pioneers are making their homes in each of the Latin American Republics. This year organized assemblies are reporting from Tegucigalpa, Honduras; San Salvador; Port au Prince, Haiti and Havana, Cuba.

Distinguished Visitors

Among the outstanding visitors to the Convention this year were Mr. and Mrs. H. Sabet and their two sons from Tehran, Iran, the birthplace of the founder of the Baha' faith. This family left Tehran on Sept. 13 of last year and after travelling 22,000 miles by auto, clipper and ship through the Far East war zone they finally arrived in San Francisco on Christmas Day. Leaving Manila aboard the President Coolidge just 10 days before the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and other American bases in the Pacific, the Sabet had the experience of hearing over the radio that their ship was missing and was believed sunk.

However, the liner had picked an unusual route to San Francisco and was met en route by U. S. naval planes which escorted it to Hawaii and then to California without once sighting a unit of the Japanese navy. During their 3 day stay in Honolulu the Sabet attended a mass burial of victims of the Japanese raid and were invited as Baha'is to take part in the burial service.

Mr. Sabet is director of a company in Hihran, Iran, which handles Chrysler and General Electric products, but expects to remain in America for the duration of the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Crandall, Cable, Wis., spent several days here the past week.

Mrs. Fred Schwartz has returned to her home in Long Island, N. Y., after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitfield of Chicago and Lake Marie. The Whitfields have just opened their summer home for the season.

Motor Service Employment
Approximately 1,306,752 persons were employed in the sales and service of motor vehicles in 1939, according to the U. S. bureau of census.

Just So Its Paid
A man who, seriously or otherwise, expressed a desire to pay a 40 cents federal income tax in quarterly installments brought this ruling from Collector of Internal Revenue Thomas Hassett: "Even if his tax were only four cents, he has a perfect right to pay it in four installments."

Once New Sweden
New Jersey was once known as New Sweden. That was when it was a Dutch possession.

Cow Stands Half Time
It has been discovered that a cow, out of a 24-hour day, spends half her time standing or roaming and the rest lying down.

Fresh Food Drive Seen Delaying Tin Shortage

Tin priorities and the curtailed use of cans for food should present no immediate problem for Antioch housewives as fresh fruit and vegetables are being made available in steadily increasing quantity and variety, J. P. Smith, vice president for the A & P Food Stores in the area declared today.

He announced the inauguration of a nationwide advertising and promotion campaign to feature fresh fruits and vegetables designed to provide vitamin- and mineral-bearing fresh produce at reasonable cost and in greater quantity.

There are four main purposes behind the campaign, Smith said. First—cooperation in the government's nutrition drive. Second—greater efficiency in distribution. Third—To aid housewives in setting a "good table"; and fourth—To provide food which carries the proper dietary balance.

Several media will be used during the promotion and advertising campaign, Mr. Smith said, but as in the past greatest reliance will be placed on newspaper advertising.

Stress will be laid during the campaign on home canning programs being sponsored by the government as part of the nutrition drive the food chain executive said.

Among the commodities now available, Mr. Smith listed the following: Florida oranges, Cuban pineapple, Texas new potatoes, California new potatoes, hot-house tomatoes, California green peas, Florida celery, Maine white potatoes, Texas yellow onions, rhubarb, spring spinach, Florida cucumbers, California lemons, Florida grapefruit, California avocados, Florida green beans, new southern cabbage, radishes, cauliflower, California iceberg lettuce and Texas carrots.

Finds Dandy Dandelion

Did you ever see a three-in-one dandelion? Mrs. Charles Alvers, Jr., found one this week near her husband's garage and service station at the state line. Three almost perfectly formed blossoms growing on a single stem. It's in the News window. Back in the bootleg era when the boys had to make their own dandelion wine was quite the thing. If they had only grown 3-on in those days wouldn't that have been sumpin'?

The Happy Medium

One day this week a man came in the News office to place a job wanted advertisement. Before he could tell us what he wanted, another caller at the office had fired him on the spot. That's how quick our want ads work.

Quenching Small Tools

The recommended practice for quenching small tools in water is to remove them from the bath while the tools are still warm (that is, below about 300 degrees F. or where water will boil on them) and then reheat (temper) immediately to relieve stress (300-375 degrees F.—straw color) or to higher temperature for the desired hardness. Do not allow the tools to become cold in the quenching bath, and they should not become cold before tempering. Cracking due to quenching usually takes place in a relatively low temperature range.

MILLBURN

On Sunday afternoon, May 3, 1942, at two o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Culver, Miss Jean Culver exchanged nuptial vows with Chalmers S. Wooley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers S. Wooley, Sr., of Reddick, Ill.

The bride, attired in a beige suit with rusty rose and navy accessories, was given in marriage by her father. Her only attendant was Miss Anita Broadstock of Morris, Ill., who wore a blue print dress with corsage of tea roses.

Mr. Wooley was attended by his brother, Virgil Wooley of Joliet.

The bride's mother wore rose crepe and the bridegroom's mother was attired in blue lace, each wearing a corsage of rubrum lilies. The wedding march was played by Miss Deryl Bonner and the double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. T. Rasmussen of the Millburn Congregational church in the presence of 25 relatives and friends.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served.

Out of town guests who attended were the bride's two grandmothers, Mrs. Alice Culver of Round Lake and Mrs. Mina Gilbert of Waukegan; Miss Margaret Gilbert of Waukegan, Mrs. C. S. Wilmot Senior Class
To Present "America First" May 8

On the evening of May 8th, the Senior class of Union Free high school at Wilmot, Wisconsin will present a rousing comedy-drama entitled, "America First," in the Wilmot gymnasium. Here is a red-blooded, up-to-the minute play of American ideals, told in a startlingly human fashion by Robert Ray, popular playwright, whose many popular plays and motion pictures have been shown all over the country. "America First" is a simple little story, but one that will be sure to arouse the patriotism of all who see it, and make them appreciate the things for which our country stands.

Those taking part in the production are:

Elizabeth Boggs, a housekeeper
Lorraine Roanhouse
Grandpa Holmes, a very old man
Dick Roberts
Lee Holmes, a high school boy
Bob Robinson
Jimmy Banks, Lee's friend
Ray Hirschmiller
Dorothy Holmes, Lee's older sister
Juanita Young
Gladys Caley, a high school girl
Lettie Church
Ola Kring, a dancing teacher
Franz Kring, Ola's brother
Lyle Nelson
Ann Holmes, a widow
Anne Gilmore
Frank Griffith, a federal man
Louis Oetting
Owen Blake, a Flying Cadet

The play is directed by Miss Joyce Winans, a member of the Wilmot high school faculty.

Well, They Asked for It!

(By William H. Stuart)
in HEARD and SEEN

The Democratic high command attacked U. S. Senator C. Wayland Brooks because of his position before the war. At a sacrifice to American unity, they reopened the bitter debate which had waged before Pearl Harbor between interventionists and non-interventionists. Before the war they would not permit a popular referendum on the issue. When we were at war, all debate should have been adjourned and all energies should have been centered upon winning the war. But the Roosevelt interventionists forced upon Illinois a referendum, when there should have been no referendum on what had gone over the dam.

The local interventionist papers, the News, Sun, and Times, attacked Brooks for his pre-war position. The Sun even raised the "Cooper-Head" issue against the Chicago Tribune, the lone local daily that gave Brooks support.

Well, they got their referendum. It swamped them. Brooks has been re-nominated over his opponent (a pre-war interventionist) by better than a 4 to 1 vote. That 500,000 majority for Brooks is of national significance. Maybe it will administer a quietus on the Washington plan to attempt to purge members of Congress in other states who took the non-intervention side before the war.

MONDAY: THE DAY OF AUTHORITY

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 21:12-22.
GOLDEN TEXT—My house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.—Isaiah 56:7.

Modern presentations of Christ in picture and sermon often give the impression that He was an effeminate man who went about doing gentle little deeds of kindness. One almost feels that He spoke in a half whisper and that He fearfully avoided the difficulties and dangers of life.

Such a picture of Christ, whether in words or on canvas, was never obtained from the Bible. Yes, He was gentle and kind; He did go about doing good; He was altogether humble—but why give the false impression that gentleness means weakness, kindness means a sentimental softness, etc. These are the virtues of a strong man and such was our Christ. He was a manly man who so excited the admiration of the boys in the temple that they shouted a holy "Hurrah" (Hosanna—in Hebrew).

On Monday as our Lord came into the city He saw and dealt with the fruitless fig tree and later in the day He cleansed the temple. This seems to be the order of the events (see Mark 11) and we will so consider them.

I. Jesus Stimulates Faith by an Act of Judgment (vv. 12-22).

In the morning as Jesus returned to Jerusalem, He was hungry. He had probably spent the night in prayer after His time of fellowship with the disciples (Mark 11:11). It was early spring, and normally not the time for figs to be ready to eat, but He saw a tree which already had foliage on it. Since the leaves form after the fruit, He properly looked for figs—green, perhaps, but even so useable for food—and there were none.

In a swift miracle of judgment, He condemned the tree, which soon withered. Some have assumed that He acted in anger, but that is evidently not so. His act was a sign to Israel and to us. The fig tree was a figure of Israel (see Hosea 9:10; Joel 1:7; Luke 13:6-9). They as a nation had the outward signs of fruit, that is, the "leaves" of temple worship, teaching of the law, etc., but there was no fruit of repentance and faith, of real love for God (see Rom. 2:17-23). Judgment was certain, and our Lord cursed a useless, fruitless tree to try to awaken the people to their need.

So our Lord comes to us—to look below the foliage of Christian profession, of our charities and benevolences, of our correct doctrinal views—to see if there is any fruit of real Christian living. How often He must turn away in sadness because there is none.

This miracle was not only a sign of judgment; it was used by our Lord to stimulate the disciples' faith. What they had seen was only an indication of what faith (and note it was their faith) could do. The promise of God to those who, abiding in Christ and with His Word abiding in their heart, ask according to His will, in faith nothing doubting, is without limit.

II. Jesus Stimulates Praise by an Act of Authority (vv. 12-17).

For a second time He drove out from His Father's house those who had made it a place of merchandise, of commercialized thievery. This is a majestic picture. The Son of God and Son of Man steps into the center of this unholy traffic and with mighty, holy indignation (not anger) drives it out. The people who had suffered long because of this religious racket, which paid a nice "cut" to the priests themselves (probably as a "gift" even as such things are managed in our day), were jubilant.

The boys who were in the temple (for such is doubtless the meaning of "children" in v. 15) were so delighted at this magnificent exercise of His divine authority that they broke out into "Hosannas," which, as we have suggested, were really a holy "Hurrah." Well, why not? Hurrah for our Lord! He will not tolerate iniquity even though it hides under the cloak of religion. He is not afraid to speak out and to act against sin and corruption. Possibly the church would reach a good many more men and boys in our day if it would step out in faith to fight the wrong and support the right. Then maybe the young men would shout, "Hurrah for the church," instead of some of the things they are saying.

The chief priests and scribes were "sovereignly displeased" (v. 15) both by the acts of Jesus and the praise of the boys. They would be! And they have a host of descendants who hold places of authority today—yes, even in the church—who would be much displeased if such things were to happen now. But why fear them? Is it not high time that the people of God honored their Lord both by faith and good works, regardless of what men may say? Ought we not to please God rather than men (see Acts 5:29 and Ps. 56:4)?

Look at the pledge, above. Study it. It is a copy of the pledge you will be asked to sign during the War Bond Pledge Drive which starts in Illinois Monday, May 11. America's Fighting Men Have Pledged Their Lives For You! Pledge At Least 10 Per Cent Of Your Income For Them!

THE MINUTE MAN who will call on you for your pledge during Illinois' great three-day War Bond Pledge Drive is one of a huge army of volunteer workers who are giving their time and effort to help raise money for their country... your country. They will call on every single home in Illinois. Not one home... not one person who receives or can earn an income of any kind... will be overlooked.

So be ready when the Minute Man calls. Be ready to pledge as much as you can afford out of your income—regularly. Talk this over—right now—with your whole family, and decide how much you can put into War Bonds every payday. Remember, a minimum of 10 per cent of your income is needed.

Pledge Is Confidential

As you can see when you read the pledge, the information you give is strictly confidential. It is not an order. It is not a contract. It is a voluntary expression on your part of your willingness to let the United States have a part of your income for a short time, repayable with interest. If you are already buying War Bonds, sign the pledge showing you are buying on a Pay Roll Savings or other plan, because the U. S. Treasury Department needs to know exactly how much money it can depend on borrowing every week, every month, every year, from you and millions of other patriotic Americans.

Best Investment In The World

When you buy War Bonds you are not giving anything to anybody. You are making the best and most patriotic investment in the world. One that is guaranteed—both principal and interest—by all the resources of the United States government.

Same Bonds—Only The Name Has Changed

Before Pearl Harbor these bonds were called Defense Bonds. Now they are War Bonds—technically, U. S. War Savings Bonds. The Secretary of the Treasury has stated that our vast needs for armament indicate that every wage-earner, every business man, every farmer, every professional man, everyone who receives or can earn income of any kind should put at least 10 per cent of that income into War Bonds.

That may be easy for some; it may mean sacrifices for others.

But our fighting men are making sacrifices every day—often for lack of equipment these bonds would buy.

We've all had to do without certain things the last few months—things people in other countries have never had. But there's one thing sure we can't do without—Victory.

Remember that when the Minute Man knocks on your door to get your pledge.

Be ready.

Sign the pledge—and pledge plenty!

SEQUOIT NEWS

Edited by Students of Antioch Township High School

Junior Prom Is Pronounced Success

(By Rosalie Sibley)
The annual Junior Banquet and Promenade was held at the Antioch Township High School Saturday, May 2. The theme was "Under the Stars." "Stars" were flickering and the new "moon" was shining. Girls in colorful formal, with their escorts made the picture complete.

The dinner was served in candlelight at 7:00 p. m. by waitresses in black dresses and white aprons and caps and by waiters in dark trousers, white mess jackets, and chef hats.

Bud Maplethorpe, president of the junior class, as toastmaster, welcomed the seniors. Billy White, president of the senior class, gave the response to the welcome. E. W. Edwards, principal of the high school, spoke words of appreciation and introduced W. C. Petty, county superintendent of schools, who spoke for the "veterans" of the high school. Grade school "midget band" played several selections.

Bud Maplethorpe and Virginia Poulson led the grand march, which started dancing to the music of Howard Gaston and his orchestra.

Yep, Spring Is In The Air at Antioch High

(By Rose Marie Zellhofer)
Spring is in the air around Antioch High and again, as every year bringing with it new romances, new fads, and new troubles for the teachers. There are boys and girls lying on the lawn of the school. And there go a book, an eraser, and some chalk out the window. From one of the classroom windows the strains of a band march float in, and everyone listens, and the teacher preaches on. Pretty soon the train comes puffing down the track and there is another diversion from Caesar or Lincoln or Matthew C. Perry. One of the boys mentions how hot it is, and up goes every window in the room. Then everyone listens to the music from the guy and the teacher pulls down every window in the room.

There's the squeaking of huaraches, the swirl of dandruff and broomstick skirts, and the sheer frilly blouses to brighten the corridors. The boys sport striped shirts and crew or "Heinie" hair cuts.

And the romances. Well, they keep coming and going so fast it's hard to keep track. They walk outside hand in hand. Maybe he discovers someone else he thinks he likes or she thinks that boy's too-o-o cute with that hair-cut.

Another spring has come and it marks a new era in high-school life.

Religious Sects

Religious sects and organizations that had their rise in this country, among many may be mentioned Seventh Day Adventists, Assemblies of God, Christadelphians, Christian Catholic Church (Dowie movement), Christian Science, various Holiness Churches, Church of God ("Holy Rollers"), Church of the Nazarene, Disciples of Christ, House of David, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormonism), Jehovah's Witnesses, Shakers, United Brethren, Unity and New Thought, Universalists, and Volunteers of America.

She Was First

Miss Florence Horsbaugh was the first woman member of parliament to move an address in reply to the king's speech at the opening of parliament.

STERBENZ SCORES 7 POINTS IN LAKE COUNTY TRACK MEET

Antioch Freshmen Show Promise in First Competition Tuesday

(By Dean Weber)
Tuesday afternoon, May 5, the Antioch track squad traveled to Highland Park where they participated in the Lake County Track meet. Schools entering this meet were Waukegan, Highland Park, Libertyville, Barrington, Lake Forest, and Antioch.

Antioch entered most of the field events and placed in the discus throwing, the shot put, and the frosh relay events. George Sterbenz of Antioch took second place in the discus, throwing it a distance of 124 feet, and third in the shot put event with a 40 foot, 4 inch heave. He totaled all of Antioch's 7 points. The frosh relay team received ribbons for placing fifth.

Even though Antioch returned with only 7 points under their belts, the prospects for the Northwest Conference meet are very promising. Since this is the first year of any extensive track events the boys are gaining much valuable experience by competing against schools of high-caliber such as Waukegan and Highland Park. With so many of the boys who are winning points in meets being freshmen and sophomores, Antioch can be assured of a fine team in '43.

We can also be assured of a good finish to a track season which started rather poorly.

Richard Lyons and technicolor pictures are the highlights of the Marksmanship rally to be held Tuesday evening, May 12, 8:00 p. m., at the Libertyville High school.

Robert J. Spahr, chairman of the Department of Marksmanship, states that he expects the demonstration to be well attended and that approximately 1,500 enrollments are expected for the outdoor classes, which will begin about the first of June.

Rifles for use at the range will be furnished by the individual clubs. Ammunition can be bought at cost by class members.

Indoor rifleman classes have been going for some time and competitive matches have been held among club members.

Good marksmen are especially needed for these classes to act as instructors and also to form supporting groups around which the local class can be built.

Each township in Lake county is expected to be represented in the new outdoor classes, and probably some permanent form of local clubs will be established after the classes have been completed.

Paul J. King, Lake County co-ordinator, has explained in several of his talks that this section of civilian defense is particularly important, since the area from Milwaukee to Gary, including Lake county is one of six important industrial districts in the United States.

Many persons from Antioch community plan to attend the meeting. Some of the more experienced men of the community have been attending instruction classes at Deerfield each week and when the course is finished they will be ready to organize a rifle and pistol range here in co-operation with the civil defense organization.
